Government Engineering College – Rajkot

Academic Tasks for Indian Constitution (BE03000061) Subject

This subject is offered in 3rd semester of all branches

Term Dates: 30/7/2026 to 15/12/2026

1. Subject assessment planning

No.	Assessment Component	Marks	Remark
1	End semester exam	50 Marks	Covers Entire Syllabus
2	PBL components	30 Marks	Problem Based learning activity
3	Mid semester exam	NA	As per syllabus there is no Mid exam
4	Practical	NA	As per syllabus there is no Practical
5	Viva	NA	As per syllabus there is no Viva

2. ESE (50) End semester examination

The ESE will be conducted for the full syllabus

3. PBL (I) (30 Marks)

No	Month	PBL work	Marks
1	September (Assignment)	Public Policy in Action: Anti-Discrimination Notices Activity. To identify and analyze visible government or institutional efforts to promote equality and prevent discrimination in public spaces, and to connect these initiatives to the constitutional principle of equality under Article 14. Visit a public place such as a government office (e.g., Post Office, Municipal Corporation), a hospital, a transport hub (bus stand, railway station), a bank, a college, or a market area. Search for Notices/Posters and prepare a document.	10
2	October (Video based Learning)	Watch: Fundamental Duties Explained After watching, list at least 5 Fundamental Duties and explain their significance briefly.	10
3	November (Case study)	Study: Puttaswamy case. After reading, explain in 100 words how the case expanded the meaning of Art. 21.	10

Total: As per GTU syllabus 30 hours of PBL work as planned above, with 30 marks in total (10 marks each).

Subject Coordinator: Dr. Ashish K Shukla